Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of the species illustrated in figure 20D in the reply filed on 6/12/2006 is acknowledged. All claims are readable thereon. Accordingly, claims 1-23 are pending for consideration; and claims 24-30 have been cancelled.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-23 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-51 of U.S. Patent No. 6,558,418.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the concept of the connecting band conforming to the alternating stent cusps and commissures and defining an axial gap along the commissures opening in the inflow direction for enhancing freedom of movement of the stent cusps has previously been claimed in applicant's related patent 6,558,418 (see claims 1 and 12).

Art Unit: 3738

Claim 2, see related figures in parent. Though this feature is not specifically claimed, all illustrations by applicant possess three stent cusps and three commissures.

Claims 3 and 4, see paragraphs 33-36 in the parent.

Claim 5, see paragraph 30 and claim 24.

Claims 6-11 see claims 23-30.

Claim 12, see paragraph 13.

Claims 13-23 see corresponding rejections supra.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4,6,7,9,10,11,13-19,22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lane [4501030].

The claim as broadly worded does not distinguish over the band 48 as illustrated in figure 15 of Lane. The claims as worded are readable on the intermediate product shown in the figure below.

Claim 2, see the three stent cusps and commissures.

Claims 3 and 4, see orientation of stent, commissures and the angled band.

Claims 6 and 7, see fabric covering the stent in the figures. Note the claims does not preclude the band forming the fabric covering the stent.

Claims 9-11, see band 48 attached to stent.

Claims 13-19, 22 and 23, see rejection to corresponding claims supra.
